Face makeup & wigs are permitted outside of the ballroom as long as individual's face is recognizable; extreme/face-altering makeup is subject to same location restrictions as a mask.

Contest Judging:

- Upon registering to participate in the contest, each contestant will be issued a contestant number. Beginning at approximately 9:00 PM (local time), each contestant will be summoned (based on assigned contestant number) to present his/her costume on stage in-person before a panel of contest judges.
  - Costumes/contestants will be judged based on best overall appearance, originality, and stage presence. The panel of judges will work in unison to consolidate the favored contestants (of all judges) into a single list of the Top Ten (10) best costumes.
  - In the event of a tie, an appointed tie-breaker judge will be allowed to determine a final winner(s)/ranking.
  - The Top 10 finalists will return to the stage for a final presentation and be ranked in order from first to tenth place. Judges will work in unison to rank the finalists; winning place of each will be announced immediately following rank determination by judges.
- All contestants must be prepared for judging by 9:00 PM and present when his/her number range is called on the overhead sound system (inside the ballroom) to the stage queue. Any contestant not present or ready for stage presentation on time may be disqualified from contest. Coshatta Casino Resort is not responsible for contestant's punctuality.
